

Elaine Marjorie Stinson

July 28, 1927 - February 20, 2011

Elaine Marjorie Stinson, 83, passed away Sunday, February 20, 2011. She was born July 28, 1927, in Dickinson, N.D., to Gilbert Lunde and Olava Larsen Lunde, and had resided in Ventura 37 years. Elaine graduated from Pasco High School, in Pasco, Washington in 1945. In May, 1948, she married Virgil Elvan Stinson in Spokane, Washington. In 1957 the couple moved to Idaho Falls, Idaho, where daughters Cheryl Lee Stinson and Lori Ann Stinson were born. In 1963, the family moved to Sylmar, California, where Virgil went to work at Atomics International and Elaine became a homemaker, later working for San Fernando Electric.

In 1974, the family moved to Ventura. Elaine retired from work at the County Government Center and became a full-time homemaker. The family became active members of Trinity Lutheran Church in Ventura, where Elaine volunteered in many ways including: church office work, Mary-Martha Bereavement Committee, Vacation Bible School, and Family to Family. Additionally, she volunteered for the Ventura County Fair, VASA Lodge, and Sons of Norway. She was also a member of the Professional Business Women's Group in Ventura.

She is survived by her husband, Virgil; daughters, Cheryl Stinson and Lori Stinson; son-in-law, Wes Morrow; and grandson, Aidan Morrow.

A reception will follow the service in the Fellowship Hall.

Virgil Stinson

March 3, 1921 - April 10, 2013

Virgil Elvan Stinson, 92, died Wednesday April 10, 2013. He was born March 3, 1921 in Pasco, Washington to Otto Siegfried Stinson and Huldah Arvilla Scott and has resided in Ventura, California for 39 years.

Virgil graduated from Pasco High School, in Pasco, Washington in 1939. In May of 1948 he married Elaine Marjorie Lunde in Spokane, Washington. In 1957 the couple moved to Idaho Falls, Idaho where daughters Cheryl Lee Stinson and Lori Ann Stinson were born. In 1963, the family moved to Sylmar, California where Virgil went to work at Atomics International and Elaine first became a homemaker and then went to work for San Fernando Electric.

In 1974 the family moved to Ventura. Virgil retired from work at Rockwell in Simi Valley. The family became active members of Trinity Lutheran Church in Ventura where Virgil volunteered in many ways including: repairing toys for the preschool, church treasurer, maintaining the church pipe organ, and family to family. Additionally he volunteered for the County Fair, VASA lodge and Sons of Norway.

He was preceded in death by his wife Elaine of 62 years, but is survived by daughters Cheryl Stinson and Lori Stinson, his son in law Wes Morrow and his grandson Aidan Morrow.

