

Alice Annabelle Maurer

January 30, 1923 - August 28, 2015

Alice Annabelle Maurer, 92, of Ventura, passed away peacefully at the Californian, a Ventura Convalescent Hospital, on August 28, 2015 from complications relating to congestive heart failure.

She was born on January 30, 1923, in Kansas City, Missouri to the late Maude (Craig) Otis and the late Thomas Otis. In 1929, Alice made the first of many moves in her life when she and her family relocated to Los Angeles.

Alice loved change and enjoyed numerous diverse employment opportunities. While her primary career was in Real Estate, her entrepreneurial spirit resulted in ownership of a florist shop, photography studio, two pubs and a taxi cab company. There wasn't anything Alice wouldn't attempt!

Alice loved studying her family genealogy. After retirement she spent countless hours researching her family tree. She compiled volumes of information about her ancestors, and could discuss her genealogy for hours without referring to notes.

Preceded in death by her parents and sisters, Marie Freeman and Phoebe Joyce Larson, Alice is survived by her husband of 28 years, Floyd Emil Maurer of Ventura; son David Hansen and his wife Patricia of Saugus, California; daughter, Julie West of Ventura; son John Crowley of Ventura; stepdaughter Jacqueline Brand and her husband Michael of Thousand Oaks; stepdaughter Connie Brennan and her husband Robert of Oceano, California; stepdaughter Catherine Wesner and husband Kurt of Lucas, Texas; stepdaughter Laurie Houlihan and her husband Terry of Los Angeles; stepdaughter Debbie Sean and husband Billy of Playa Del Rey; 20 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren.

The family would like to thank the administration and staff at the Californian for their compassionate and loving care during her extended stay.
